Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, On March 13, 1990, Harold D. Salway was elected as the new president of the Oglala Sioux Tribe; and,

WHEREAS, Harold Salway is a highly qualified man for the position having served as vice president, fifth member, and police officer--just to name a few--for the Oglala Sioux Tribe; and,

WHEREAS, Harold Salway has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Harold Salway has served on many committees and commissions and has received several awards, such as the 1987 Outstanding Young Men of America Award, Lone Eagle Drum Group Member, and Physical Fitness Award from the OLC Police Academy; and,

WHEREAS, On April 10, 1990, Harold Salway will be inaugurated as President of the Oglala Sioux Tribe; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize and commemorate the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 10, 1990, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
